

Preethi Reddi

1204 S. Elm Street, Shenandoah, Iowa 51601
Phone: 402-617-0117; E-Mail: preethi.reddi@emory.edu

Education

Shenandoah High School, Shenandoah, IA

GPA/Class Rank: 4.2233; 1/86

Emory University, Atlanta, GA

Pre-med track

GPA: 3.833

Diploma Received May 2016

Class of 2020

Research Experience

Navara Lab

June 2017-August 2017

- Worked as an undergraduate research assistant for the lab of Dr. Kristen Navara, PhD at the University of Georgia
- Assisted in research that focuses on the avian sex-ratio manipulation and the role of hormones, specifically testosterone, in aggression

Publications and Presentations

- Farrell, A., Reddi, P., Shannon, A., Otis, L. Diagnosing the Canvas. Emory Undergraduate Medical Review. Volume 3, Issue 2, 31-33, 2017.

Volunteer and Community Service Experience

Summer STEM Program, Shenandoah, IA

June 2017

- Develop a summer program for middle school students that will work to increase interests in STEM through exposure to careers, hands-on activities, and contact with mentors
- Coordinate with local teachers, science professionals, and students to organize program

Shenandoah Medical Center, Shenandoah, IA

2012-2017

- Volunteer at Shenandoah Medical Center, including Elm Heights Nursing Home
- Assist employees with patient care through organizing charts and spending time with patients

Leadership Experience

Emory Scholars Program

2017-Present

- Selected as a Henry L. Bowden Dean's Achievement Scholar based on merit after one year as an Emory student
- Represent the Emory Scholars Program through exemplification of the Emory Scholar qualities of intellectual curiosity, creative thinking, servant leadership, communication skills, and commitment to community

Interdisciplinary Exploration and Scholarship (IDEAS) Fellow

2017-Present

- Serve as an ambassador to creating a more integrated liberal arts experience for Emory students
- Implement and participate in on-campus programming, such as designing and serving as TA for sidecar courses

Emotive Arts Series

2016-Present

- Found and organize an event for fellow peers and professors that conveys the importance of the interconnection of the humanities, arts, and medicine with a focus on trauma and disability
- Coordinate speakers, performers and sponsors for the event

Emory Undergraduate Medical Review Executive Board

2016-Present

- Serve as freshman liaison in an organization that produces copy journals featuring medical research and medical discussions

- Write articles and plan events relating to topics of discussion within the field of medicine, such as the interdependent relationship between art and medicine

Emory Student Ambassadors

2016-Present

- Meet with prospective students and families as a representative of Emory University
- Discuss opportunities offered at Emory as well as student life

Honors and Recognition

Dean's List

Spring 2017

- Recognized by the Dean of Emory University College of Arts and Sciences as part of the top 20 percent of the class of 2020 based on semester grade point average

Phi Delta Epsilon

2017-Present

- Inducted into the founding chapter of a national pre-med honors fraternity for scholastic achievement and interest in the field of medicine

Phi Sigma Pi

2017-Present

- Inducted into Phi Sigma Pi honors, service, and social fraternity for excellence in academics and demonstration of leadership